

I believe satellite radio should be allowed to continue and improve. It makes it possible to listen to programming we may not get locally, and that's important.